HOW shall we in medicine oppose this destructive social trend? By making ourselves, in the first place, a part of the enlightened minority that is the salvation of democratic government; by being alert to the socialized dangers to medicine and by aggressively opposing them; by opposing, as vigorously as can be done, the various governmental projects for practicing medicine, and the efforts of organizations, public and private, including medical schools and hospitals, to go into the practice of medicine as a business.—

From the address of President William Allen Pusey, American Medical Association.
